STATE LOAN.

In another column we give an extract from the Detroit Free Press, announcing the cheering intelligence that THE LOAN OF FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, authorized by the Legislature for Internal Improvements has been effecte!. Gov. Mason has jus returned from New-York, where the mat-the extract above referred to a just rebuke is given to those who so far forgot themselves and the State, as to be guilty of such tions of the Whig papers—the inuendoes and inquiries, in relation to this loan—al have an answer in the fact, that, as wa expected from a negociation long since com enced, the loan is finally obtained by the Executive. They have asserted that he could, and he could not, that he would, and they saw that he was likely to bring the negociation to a successful termination, why. an appeal is made to the local prejudices of the borth and the south, against the central portion of the State. It may not be for the interest of the WHIG PARTY, as a party, but for Michigan it is a most important matter. By it we have in our Treasury the means of carrying out the system which has been adopted, with due reference to the interest of all parts of our state. Will our Whig neighbors set down in sack-cloth and weep at this good news? We can not believe it. Our city is situated at the eastern termi nation of the southern route for a rail road across the Peninsula. We naturally feel great interest in the construction of this r. ad. MONROE, if this road is constructed, will be loan will be used for the construction of the rail-road on the southern route? It is found in the fact that it was established by the party now in power; that a survey is nearly completed under this administration; that one hundred thousand dollars are allready appropriated for it by a Democratic L gis-lature; that it is now urged on with the utmost zeal, and that the means are now obtained to complete it. It is begun, and it will not be relinquished until the communipublic works in different parts of the State, will do much to relieve the wants of the community in pecuniary matters. It will go into the hands of laborers, and of those employed in procuring materials for the works. It will certainly give an impetus to the business exertions of our cirizens.— It will give character and credit to our
